

Portset Document Reader

The Portset Document Reader is a stand-alone machine for blind and sight impaired people.

The compact stand-alone table top model incorporates the latest technology in speech quality and text recognition.

Portset human quality speech solution combined with optical character recognition produces high clarity precision and intelligence to provide an independent solution for visually impaired use.

Portset has ensured by design that the machine is simple to operate and provides features that will suit a wide range of users and uses.

- Portset's text to speech engine produces a human type quality British English female voice.
- Page size up to A4 (28 X 20 cm) with a font as fine as 6 point can be read.
- Page orientation is automatically conducted.
- Document can be stored as single pages or as joined pages.
- Letters, books, magazines and forms can be read at ease.
- The Portset Document Reader is equipped with a British English voice, other languages are available to order
- Integral loudspeaker and headphone supplied for that very personal reading.
- Portset has ensured that the machine is simple to operate and provides features to suit a wide range of users and uses.
- Speaking can be an entire page, or line by line using the navigation cursors.
- User can repeat speaking of line, word and spell any word. Speaking can be paused and reading speed changed.
- Documents can be stored and retrieved from either the internal memory, or optional flash pen and converted to MP3.
- A rotary volume control provides an easy control of speech.
- Weighing under 6Kgms (12 lbs) and small size of 47cm by 26cm by 12cm deep, (18.5 X 10.5 X 4.5 inches).

For more information please contact us

Portset Systems Ltd. 14 Palmerston Business Park, Palmerston Drive, Fareham PO14 1DJ
Telephone 01489 893919      www.portset.co.uk